Mr. Auto Owner—Look

Short tire-life spells big expense, doesn't it? Well, I want to help you cut that expense some if you will, allow me to. Most first-class tires carry a guarantee of 3,500 miles only. It would be a great advantage to you to get a tire costing no more but with a 6,000 mile guarantee, wouldn't it? But, if in addition you were to be presented with a celebrated red tube to fit the tire, as a bonus, you would think you were in luck, wouldn't you? Well, this is just what I am doing: To each purchaser of a

What Is Wrong With Our Juries?

The final action of court juries, especially in our criminal courts, has become a menace to the country. Sentimental saphcads will not convict a woman, though proven guilty; one or two stubborn and bone-headed "pick ups" will hang a jury and keep the worst criminals out of Joliet, and the best efforts of our police and prosecutors, besides the thousands of dollars spent in making up their cases are thrown away, because the juries are made up of inferior and in many cases incompetent people. This is undoubtedly the case, and the reason is simply because good (?) jurors cannot be obtained. Nine out of every ten business men called to do jury service get off on one excuse or another, and 12 men must sit in the panel, so the court bailiffs fill the chairs with "pick ups" who are incompetent mentally and morally to do justice. Not only do business men refuse to serve, but they insist that their higher-class employees must not serve, and it is easy sledding for the professional and loafer class to get a job, and the few really honest and capable men who offer themselves are out-voted every time. There is no use of blaming the officers for the prevalence of crime, and its going unpunished, so long as the citizens themselves will not do their duty. It is simply up to the people themselves, and they are at fault. Think it over when you get your notice to do jury service.

The Fellow That Gets Something for Nothing.

Probably Englewood is no worse off in this matter than other districts, but we certainly have a class of people who are content and even scheme to have other people work and pay for privileges and advantages that they are quick to take advantage of and enjoy, and which they refuse to assist in procuring. The lighting of the streets, the street sprinkling, and other conveniences and comforts that have been enjoyed by all, are paid for by comparatively few. We had a man who never in his life spent a dollar on a newspaper, ask us why we did not devote more space to advocating home patronage, when the fact is we are always advocating it, but he would not pay for a paper to read and learn this. Others ask, What is the Commercial association doing? when for two cents they can learn just what they are doing by reading the weekly paper. If we want to make a fight for home advancement commercially, and in the civic life of the city, we must all get together, cut out this selfishness, and work for the advancement of all of Englewood; and in this way we will profit by it. The women are doing more to put Englewood on the map than the men, for the very reason that they are organized and are devoting their energies to the betterment of local conditions, and the many woman clubs and associations are the real motive power of our success. It would be well for the men to follow them, and all take a part in what is being done for the common good. Wake up!

The schools will be dismissed for the holiday vacation next Friday.

Commercial Association May Change Name

Headquarters Located at 352 W. 63d St.—John R. Burgess Elected Chairman.

Changing the name of the Commercial association to meet the requirements of the reorganization and the development of its new expansion policy was the chief topic at the luncheon held last Wednesday at the Englewood club.

With the progress of the campaign to co-ordinate the interests of every district in the community it was felt that the change would be necessary. Representatives from every part of the district attended the association luncheon and was a general opinion in favor of the change. Business men not on 63d St. who have become active in the work declared a new name would get the community away from the idea that the association was entirely for 63d St. This is the leading issue of the campaign now in progress under the direction of John P. Wagner. The question will be given consideration during the week and the new name will be settled at the business luncheon on Wednesday, December 20.

Headquarters have been established for the campaign offices at 352 W. 63d St., near Stewart Ave. Arrangements have been made for telephones to be installed and the offices will be occupied by Mr. Wagner and his force as soon as possible.

That the membership extension campaign is creating a wide interest was shown by the attendance of a large number from the outlying districts at the luncheon. Business and professional men alike have taken part in the work. Rev. R. A. White in a short talk invited the association to use his church for the community interests, Rev. Dr. Jesse Dancey has also co-operated with the work and of such high character is with development work that it is expected the assistance of the clergy from every part of the community will be enlisted. Principal Armstrong of the Englewood high school has assured the workers that he was back of the movement as the work had a direct bearing on the advance of the schools.

At the meeting Monday evening at the Englewood club, John R. Burgess, president of the Englewood State bank, was elected president of the chairman of the committee and Mr. Wagner's assistant, Peirce Lewis, was appointed secretary of the campaign committee.

The committee personnel is officially given for the first time; V. E. Nichols, First National bank; Ira J. Mix, 7315 Vincennes Ave.; H. D. Battles, 7302 Perry Ave.; L. A. Merriman, 6914 Wentworth Ave.; R. D. Hocking, 519 W. 69th St.; Daniel Ryan, 6647 Stewart Ave.; C. J. Rittenhouse, 6259 La Salle St.; A. A. Deneen, 457 W. 61st Pl.; John Schubert, 5820 Wentworth Ave.; Dr. M. H. Dugger, 357 W. 63d St.; James E. Armstrong, principal of the Englewood high school; A. L. White, 215 Englewood Ave.; A. H. ## About Our Free Church Notices

We devote our entire second page to church and religious announcements and news, and do not charge a penny for them, but we will not publish sermons or unfavorable comments upon any church or form of belief, paid or otherwise. Advertisements of paid functions must be paid for, and all display ads, but we welcome announcements of any and all denominations. We have found it necessary to refuse some alleged church news which was anything but Christian, and writers of this stuff are simply wasting their time in sending it to us. Many churches duplicate their notices, and others never change theirs. We would suggest that the pastor or someone else be delegated to attend to these announcements, and mail or bring them to us before Wednesday noon of each week. We will be glad to publish them free and give them proper space and attention.

INFORMAL MEETINGS.

"Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God," Rom. 10:17.

Chance for the Boys and Girls.

Every boy and girl wants a chance to make some extra money for the holidays, and we are offering them an opportunity to do so after school hours and on Saturdays. We are placing a number of subscription solicitors right in their own home districts and allowing them a very liberal commission by which they can easily make several dollars a day with little effort. Call early to get best territory. See Mr. Munns, Englewood Times office, 417 West 63d St.

HARVARD PHOTO PLAY HOUSE

It is with great pleasure we present the following quality attractions for this and the coming week:

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 15 and 16. Extra Special 2 Days Only—Direct from the loop. The most noteworthy cinema accomplishment of the age. Jules Verne's enthralling story, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," an awe-inspiring under-the-ocean photo drama, in eight parts. Shown in its entirety as shown in the Studebaker theater at prices up to $1.00. It required two years to produce this marvelous production, at a cost of $500,000. See the torpedo sink a ship! See the octopus strangle a diver! See the marvelous marine gardens! See other thrilling and dramatic scenes at the bottom of the ocean! Reveals many strange, startling sights never before seen by man. First show, 2 p. m.; last, 10 p. m. Notice: Special children's matinee Saturday at 10:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. All seats 10 cents. Send your children. Attend the matinee and avoid the rush. Matinee and evening, children 10 cents; adults, 20 cents.

Sunday, Dec. 17, continuous 2 to 11 p. m.; matinee 5 cents and 10 cents; evening, 10 cents and 15 cents—Metro Pictures offer wonderful Emily Stevens in "The Wager," a marvelous Metro masterplay of business life and the underworld—5 stupendous acts; also, a scream two-part Keystone comedy.

Monday, Dec. 18—William A. Brady presents an all-star cast, Gail Kane, Arthur Ashley, Mondagn Love and Muriel Ostriche, in "The Men She Married." The cynic said "marriage is a lottery." Seldon said "marriage is a desperate thing," and Johnson said "marriage is the best state for man in general." "The Men She Married" is not founded on a sex problem, but it is a clean, interesting and modern drama that entertains. See it and decide which—whether the cynic or whether Johnson—was correct. It is a play with a strong heart pull and intense interest, with a surprise at the close. Also, Earl Williams, in "The Lost Girl," a new Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature.

Tuesday, Dec. 19—Beauty in overalls romps through a large part of the five reels which compose William Fox's new photoplay, "The Ragged Princess," a winsome story of a waif's adventures. The beauty is June Caprice, and she finds the overalls in a barn after she has run away from the great black orphanage she had called her home.

Wednesday, Dec. 20, matinee 2 to 5:30 p. m.; evening 6:30 to 11 p. m.—Charles Ray, Margery Wilson, Margaret Thompson in "The Honorable Algy." There is one bad Englishman and there is one good Englishman, and they're both titled. One of 'em loves little "Pat" and the other loves money. There's a million in jewels, too, but the big thing is the sweet, virile story that pulls and grips and holds you. Charles Ray and Margery Wilson and Margaret Thompson have never done better nor had a better vehicle than the new Triangle-Kay Bee play, "The Honorable Algy." Also, a new Keystone comedy.

Thursday, Dec. 21—An evil woman and an evil man conspire to break up the home where only peace and quiet had been before. At first, they are successful; but in the end, husband and wife find happiness again. William Fox presents Bertha Kalich, supported by Stuart Holmes, in his drama of the home, "Love and Hate," the vivid portrayal of a woman's emotions. Written by Mary Murillo. Directed by James Vincent. Also, International Weekly and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in a new comedy.

NATIONAL THEATRE

"The Blindness of Youth," which Harry Clay Blaney will bring to the National theatre Sunday matinee for the week of December 17 is a comedy with a serious purpose. Bearing lessons of life, love and laughter upon a veritable silver platter, the mysterious Jimmy walked into the factory and into the hearts of the people, deftly sermonizing happiness out of misery and dollars out of poverty, until in the end life, love and laughter reigned supreme, and waves of life, love and laughter had transmitted themselves in some degree to those out in front of the footlights. It is to this general atmosphere of happiness that "The Blindness of Youth" owes the manifest appeal which it makes to the audience.

Jimmy, cheerful optimist, and withal bluffer, drops into the office of John Trelleven, proprietor of the Cinderella Soft-sole Baby Shoe company, just as Trevellen is about to end his own and the failure of the company by deftly shooting himself. It is a dark and stormy night; the pistol is about to go off, when—"in walks Jimmy." Jimmy, who combines the genial impudence of a Wallingford with the idealism of the stranger in the "Third Floor Back," appoints himself manager of the firm and proceeds to "bluff" the town into believing the shoe company is so busy that it can hardly attend to business.

Jimmy never lets a chance go by (thanks to Mrs. Ronie H. Jaffa, the California playwright) to point out the many advantages of laughter in solving the riddles of the world. And all the while Jimmy is working and talking—and laughing—the other characters are revolving around him and learning how to smile, too. The villain casts suspicion upon Jimmy, making folks believe he is a train robber, and to shield the brother of the girl he loves—Jimmy teaches her to smile, too—he allows himself to go to jail. But all is righted in the end, and nobody goes to jail, not even the reckless and technically guilty brother.

Harry Clay Blaney appears as Jimmy with the ready smile, and Kitty Wolf, as Kitty Blake, his sweetheart. The style of drama ranges from idealistic sermonizing through rousing modern comedy, the detective drama (including the dictograph) to a conclusion of bold travesty which, with a single line, upsets the entire fabric woven with so much elaborate complication.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The holiday season brings to the popular Empress theatre the best line of attractions at any time of the year. Many of the sketch and vaudeville people are "resting" at this time, and Manager Harry Mitchell being well known to them all, he gathers them in for short engagements at his house, giving Englewood audiences the benefit of the very best and leading attractions, which usually play only the larger houses in the "loop" district, at the Empress' bargain prices. The variety and scope of this house in the amusement line is noticeable, as the programs have a diversified character from song and dance to wonders and mysteries in skill and science, while their moving pictures are of the highest character and with absolutely the latest features. A winning card for the Empress is the daily matinee for ten cents. This is the popular time for women and children, and they certainly show that they appreciate it by the magnificent audiences they bring. Such a thing as a dollar show for a dime is what keeps other managers guessing how Mr. Mitchell does it. There are always two evening shows, and if you can't get there in time for the first, you have the second show; both are the same and absolutely no "cutting" is allowed at any performance. The matinees are the same as the night shows, and the programs change twice a week, so that no stale work is offered. The Empress is the best-heated and ventilated house in town, and the most comfortably seated, so that everything is done for the comfort and amusement of the audiences, and you are sure of a good time any afternoon or evening.

Three Definitions.

Curtis had several times been to see Jack, a nine-months-old baby, and was so exuberant in his love for and enthusiasm over him we were anxious and curious to hear what he would say about Billy, then ten days old. Unfortunately, his visit came when Billy was asleep, and Curtis solemnly eyed the motionless little mite 'way down in the crib. When his father asked that evening what he thought of Billy, Curtis said, "Well, I'm a little boy, and Jack's a little baby, and Billy's just a name."

LINDEN PHOTODROME

Watch! The program surprise of the Linden for this and the coming week. Now comes the picture we have all been waiting for, "The Unborn." Every normal man and woman should see it! Teachers and all women interested in social, religious and educational life should see it. Be sure to see our reading notice.

Friday, Dec. 15—Charlie Chaplin, in "The Rink," the latest of Mutual's great $670,000 comedian's original comedies. Chaplin's feet, as usual, play a big part in the picture. Few of Chaplin's admirers have been aware that he is an expert roller skater, almost as much at home on ball-bearing as in the big floppy shoes that have side-stepped him to fame on the film. Remember, you can't afford to miss this one. You must see it. Also a big special five-reel feature.

Saturday, Dec. 16—Winsome June Caprice in "The Mischief Maker." It is the story of a girl whose overflowing good humor gets her into all sorts of trouble. She is wrongly accused of having posed for an artist, but she finds happiness in the end. A picture which will stir your heartstrings. Also "Mutt and Jeff" and all the latest news in the Weekly.

Sunday, Dec. 17—If you are in love! Don't fail to see the sweetest of all screen stars, Mabel Taliaferro, in "The Sunbeam," a play that warms the heart and stirs the soul. Love is the great theme of the story—love of older persons for children, love of the helping-hand kind, that is born of poverty and suffering, and the love of a "Sunbeam" for a New York gangster. The play deals with love of the type that is found in the American home, where honor and truth are respected. Also two reels of real comedy.

Monday, Dec. 18—Frank Keenan and Margery Wilson in "The Sin Ye Do," a virile, gripping, thundering play. "There is a girl in the Tombs, accused of murder, and I am going to defend her. That girl is my daughter. Grant me the time for her defense and I will make any reparation that you demand. This I promise, so help me, God!" Frank Keenan says that. The picture will tell you why. No children admitted.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 19-20—Shall this nefarious practice continue? Shall motherhood be outraged, and shall woman alone pay the penalty? Think!!! Then see the gigantic sermon with sledge-hammer blows, in one of the most amazing, the most startling, the most sensational pictures ever passed by the Chicago censors. The real birth-control picture at last! "The Unborn." Bare facts laid bare. No one under twenty-one admitted. Continuous daily, 1 p. m to 10:30 p. m.

Young Diplomat.

Diplomatic little Helen was playing with her sister and cousin. The two girls had toys and Charlie, the cousin, much desired the possession of Helen's. This young lady, however, said in the most conciliatory manner: "Oh, you play with Annie. She's having the bestest time."

Father Hennepin Found Coal.

The earliest mention of coal in the territory which afterward became the United States is recorded in the journal of Father Louis Hennepin, a French missionary, who in 1679 recorded the site of a "cole" mine in Illinois river, near the present City of Ottawa, Hennepin having passed through that region ten years before.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

An attraction that never fails to attract capacity audiences in this city is Billy Watson's new production, "The U. S. Beauties," who will make their appearance at the Englewood theatre for one week commencing Sunday matinee, December 17. Mr. Watson has engaged for this production as his principal comedian Billy Spencer, who has the enviable reputation of being the Beef Trust King's side partner for a period of ten years, creating the role of Grogan in "Krausmeyer's Alley." Billy Spencer is also the author of the first opening used by this company, "Two Old Fools." Dolly Clifford heads the female contingent. Other well-known people who appear with this aggregation are Doris Claire, McCoy and Horton, Mae Wagner, Sye Ali, Sam Wright. Mention must also be made of the chorus that Mr. Watson has gathered to display the gorgeous and elaborate costumes which he has provided for them.

Without exaggeration it may be stated that it is the smallest and youngest chorus that the law will allow to travel or appear in theatres, the age limit being just that set by the different societies for the welfare of children.

The scenery and electrical effects border on the magnificent and no expense has been spared by the "Beef Trust King" in equipping the U. S. Beauties and it will be seen that money was almost extravagantly spent.

MUTT & JEFF

"Bud" Fisher's famous cartoon characters, "Mutt & Jeff," are appearing at the leading Englewood movie theatres and if you want to chase away the blues watch for the dates they appear and treat yourself and family to an afternoon or evening of good, wholesome, side-splitting sport. It will go a long way toward shaping your next day's activities.

E. A. R. THEATRE

The E. A. R. is essentially the neighborhood house for ladies and children, and every effort is made to make their visits to this pretty house most enjoyable. Its cleanliness, superior ventilation and absolute good order is strong in its favor, and the entertaining feature is the music on the big pipe organ by that prince of organists, Robert Stronach, who has few equals and no superiors in the city.

Lyddite is picric acid melted with a little vaseline.

Yes, the "fire rains" at Eggleston Ave. and 79th St. are still with us and will be the same picturesque sight, even when snow-covered, for another year. "How long, O Lord, how long?"

Ralph Baker, who lived at 7842 Bishop St., dropped dead Monday while working in a drop forge plant at Harvey, Ill.

The Harmony club of Auburn Park will give their annual reception and dancing party at Cosmopolitan hall the evening of December 9.

Already aldermanic candidates are coming to the front, and several Auburn men are named for the position, to succeed Alderman Fisher, if he is to have a successor. The names may be filed after January 29.

When making up your list of presents consider how appropriate would be a year's subscription to the Times. Only $1 a year, sent anywhere in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Gittings of 7733 Racine Ave. have the sympathy of their friends and neighbors in the loss of their son, Herschel, Jr., who died Sunday and was buried Tuesday at Mount Greenwood cemetery.

You will be happier if you begin the New Year with a new subscription to the Times. We are not giving away automobiles, but we do give all of the news of the South side every week.

The different saloons in this locality are receiving the attention of investigators, as it is claimed many of them are open and doing business on Sundays, and some of them are to be brought up with a round turn in the police courts.

While building operations have been closed largely, still there is plenty of work in doing the interior finishing, and the year will close as one of the most prosperous in the history of the building trades. There will be a great amount of building here next season.

Prosperous Auto Concern.

The South Side Auto exchange at 7813 Halsted St., formerly at 6047 Halsted St., is making a record for the sale of autos at this time of the year. Although last Friday was one of the most disagreeable days imaginable, with rain, snow and sleet, Mr. E. Kullberger, the hustling manager, without the aid of salesmen, sold five machines right in his home territory. Anderson & Ostcholm lead off by buying a Dodge early in the morning, and at noon bought another for use in their contracting business, and then bought another in the afternoon for their office at 69th St. and Racine Ave. Frank Cipar, the florist at 7121 Halsted St., bought an inclosed Dodge car for use in his business, and a lady from Morgan Park bought a Dodge touring car. Since moving to their new quarters Mr. Kullberger has sold more cars than during the entire year, and contemplates building another large addition to his salesroom. He sells the Maxwell, Dodge, Paige, Reo and Velie cars, all good ones, and it is known that all dealings with Mr. Kullberger are always satisfactory, as he is honest, reliable and protects his trade. We congratulate him upon his success.

A pretty baby boy has made happy the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Phee of 7762 Laggon Ave.

A very pretty baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Detmer of 1021 77th St. last week, and all are doing well and are exceedingly happy.

"Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," the most-talked of picture before the public today, will be shown at the Harvard Photo Play House Friday and Saturday, December 15th and 16th.

The engagement of Miss Florence Elaine Robison, 7934 Morgan St., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Charles Webb, to Howard Randall Fox is the outcome of a meeting at an informal church reception. Mr. Fox is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fox, who are numbered among the earliest residents of Englewood. The wedding will take place in the spring.

Pyro-Stained Fingers.

A writer in a contemporary says: "In common with most photographers who use that excellent developer pyro-soda, I have suffered a great deal in the past from stained fingers, but since I adopted a very simple little dodge I have had no more trouble from this cause, and do not have to go about labeled 'amateur photographer' as formerly. On my developing table I have a cup in which is put a few ounces of a five per cent solution of sodium sulphite, to which at the moment of use I add about a couple of drams of strong hydrochloric acid. When I find that the developer has wetted my fingers I dip them into the cup for a moment and then wipe them on the duster. When development is over there are no signs of stain, either on fingers or nails, and the usual wash with warm water, with soap and a nail brush freely used, leaves the fingers quite clean and removes all chance of any stains appearing."

Queer Freak of Peanuts.

It has been noticed that the common peanut grows in a peculiar way that is distinctly original. The little plant sends up its shoots, with the fruit on the end of a somewhat stiff stalk, and then before it ripens the stem bends over and carefully pushes the fruit underground.

"K"

By Mary Roberts Rinehart

(Copyright, by McClure Publications, Inc.)

HIGHEST PAID WOMAN WRITER

Mary Roberts Rinehart, Author of "K," Commands Big Money for Her Stories.

Mary Roberts Rinehart, the author of our new serial, "K," is conceded the foremost writer of mystery stories and highest paid woman author in America. Her first story, "The Circular Staircase," was a huge success and established her reputation. Subsequent stories including "The Man in Lower Ten," and "When a Man Marries," were even more popular and demonstrated that her first work was not a "flash in the pan."

Immediately the European war started, Mrs. Rinehart went abroad for one of the big weekly periodicals and her reports from the stricken territory were among the best written.

Mrs. Rhinehart is not a college woman. She went through high school like hundreds of thousands of other girls, and then looked about her to discover in what manner she could make a living. Trained nursing looked good, so as Mary Roberts she took a course at Pittsburgh Training school. There she met young Dr. Stanley Rinehart, just starting his career, and a friendship began that ended in marriage.

It has long been said that a family physician and a parish priest eventually learn all the tragedy and human weakness and mystery and intrigue and goodness and villainy there is in the world. Undoubtedly the family physician confides freely in his wife, if she is a person of discretion; and if she has imagination and talent she may turn what she learns into good fiction. This seems to have been the case with Mrs. Rinehart.

She was married 12 years and had reached her thirty-second year before she turned her hand to literature. Almost everybody enjoys her work because she writes from the point of view of one who knows life in all its queer phases.

Without a doubt, that is the reason "K" is such an interesting story. It shows genuine knowledge of human relations from many angles. In this story Mrs. Rhinehart has taken the kind of persons that people have known all their lives—our neighbors' sons and daughters and wives and sisters and babies and grandparents—and has made them living characters in a fascinating story. You see them in their strength and weakness, their joy and sorrow, their ambition and hope, their love and hate.

One installment of "K" will appear in every issue of this paper until it is completed, and after reading the first one you will not be satisfied until you have read them all.

GARFIELD W. C. T. U.

The social meeting of the Garfield W. C. T. U. was well attended. Mrs. Tindolph, president of the South Side union, gave a very thorough report of the national convention held in Indianapolis. It was the largest delegated convention ever held, due to the 78,000 new members the past year. A great many women are just waking up to the fact that the Woman's Christian Temperance union is the thing to belong to and work with. John Barleycorn's stronghold has always been the big city. In the crowded center he has been so firmly intrenched and fortified by corrupt politics that any attempt to dislodge him seemed hopeless. Due to elections at different times, the big cities of Seattle, Portland, Denver, Birmingham, Richmond, Detroit, Grand Rapids and Omaha have gone dry. It has been conceded that when the prohibition movement is able to capture the big cities of the land it has advanced a long way toward a complete occupation of the nation. The meeting of Friday, January 5, will be held at the home of Mrs. Adeline Cranmer, 6238 Dorchester Ave. All ladies invited.

SOUTHWEST DISTRICT

Edited by the Southwest End Improvement Association.

Persons having news items, advertisements or desiring to subscribe for the Englewood Times please call on or address Mrs. R. J. Dahlin, 7148 Artesian Ave. Tel. Stewart 7272.

We are glad to know that Oscar Gustafson is again able to attend his work after a serious cold.

The Stock Show was enjoyed by a great many people this year. It was a pleasing sight to see.

The Englewood Times costs but little and tells a great deal. Are you a subscriber. If not, why not?

Mrs. Case of 7239 Artesian Ave. spent Thursday last with relatives in Hobart, Ind., having a delightful time.

Be sure and have a year's subscription for the Englewood Times on your Christmas list, a gift that will surely please.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Dahlin, Mr. Ebert and Fred Dahlin of 7148 Artesian Ave. enjoyed seeing a delightful show on Saturday evening.

Hereafter all holders of cards in the Public library may draw five instead of one book on each card. This does not apply to the seven-day, or newer books.

Why not give a friend or relative a year's subscription to the Englewood Times as a Christmas gift? It sure would please them.

Every neighbor extends his sympathy to Mrs. Ovens and family of 70th and Western Ave. for the sudden serious illness which has befallen Mr. Ovens. We all hope he will soon recover.

The many friends and relatives are glad to know that Miss Susan Brock of 5649 S. Lincoln St. is home from the hospital after a long siege of illness. We all hope that she will soon regain strength and be able to be up and around again as usual.

A surprise birthday party was given in honor of Mrs. A. Meyer of 7214 Artesian Ave. Mrs. Meyer certainly was surprised. She laughed and cried for happiness. Mrs. Meyer received many beautiful as well as very useful gifts. A number of games were played and enjoyed by all. Mrs. J. Dahlin of 6711 S. Paulina St. won the first prize in a guessing game, the prize being a package of Christmas cards. Mrs. L. Topoulos won a pretty sachet bag. Mrs. B. Roloff of Central Park Ave. won two hot-kettle holders and Mrs. E. Westen a soiled handkerchief bag. A delicious luncheon was served which all enjoyed immensely. As the guests departed all assured Mrs. Meyer that they had had a very pleasant time. Very sorry Mrs. Case, Mrs. Upton and Mrs. Gehri could not attend.

High School News.

Mr. Pocival is organizing a new military organization in this school. This organization will be in form of a company and will take up all the new revised military tactics of the United States army.

The girls' physics captain ball team had their pictures taken last Tuesday. This team is the championship ball team of the school and had its picture taken so that their faces will appear in print in that great book, namely the "E."

The pupils of Senior hall were given a treat last Wednesday morning when they heard Dean McClellan of the University of Pennsylvania give a talk. Mr. Armstrong succeeded in having Mr. McClellan, who was on a tour of the western states, come and lecture the students on business and business methods of the present day. The students appreciated this interesting talk very much.

Now finally Englewood has come to a settlement and has found itself in the position of two undisputed Cook county championships, the heavyweight football championship and the heavyweight soccer championship. Englewood clinched the football championship by defeating Crane "Tech" 32 to 0, and the soccer team won their championship by defeating Oak Park 2 to 1. Both teams will be presented with trophies. The soccer team will obtain permanent possession of the beautiful silver shield which is presented to the winning team by Mr Peel.

Well, at last the much-advertised school play is to be given. The first performance on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock and the second on Friday evening beginning at 8:15 o'clock. Without a doubt this play will be the most interesting and most perfect ever given by the school. The scenery is to be made by the school, the furniture is made by the school, and Miss Evans of this school is to take care of the costuming of the players. Now the play itself is delightful. Imagine a quiet, old-fashioned girl suddenly impersonating a flirting, flighty, relative—and then just as she is about to be found out by the man she loves—well, something happens, and if you wish to find out come to junior hall Friday evening and you will see.

A Lost Art.

Eating is said to be a lost art in America. Were it said that getting something to eat is a difficult art, it wouldn't be far wrong.

Christmas Clubs Teach People to Save.

Chicagoans put $1,000,000 into their own Christmas stockings this year through the medium of Christmas Savings clubs. A dozen of the city's banking institutions, which have introduced this system of saving throughout the year toward a holiday fund, report the carrying of more than 36,000 such accounts and are enthusiastic in their indorsement of the scheme. The United State bank announces their intention of taking it up during the coming year. Other bankers declare that the clubs are a great developer of the saving habit and predict that fully a third of the Christmas accounts will be turned over to permanent savings bank funds. The general plan of the savings clubs is the same in all of the banks. It calls for a 50-week season with a certain deposit each week. There is a wide range in the classification of deposits. The lowest calls for an initial deposit of 1 cent with 1 cent added each week, the final payment being 50 cents, and the total fund accumulated $12.75. A straight weekly deposit of $2 constitutes the top class. Interest at 3 per cent is allowed on the savings.

"We anticipate that our Christmas Savings club will become a very important department with us," said Mr. Heck of the United State bank. "As a starter for permanent savings accounts it is a great thing. Our 1917 club opens December 18 and we are making quite a campaign and expect a big membership. We will undoubtedly have to enlarge this department considerably to handle the crowd. It is a new idea to the public to be able to save in small amounts and they like the plan. One man explained that he had never saved a penny in 23 years, but that this idea had interested him and given him a start. Many parents carry accounts for their children in the smaller amounts. The 'decreasing' class of deposit is one of the favorite methods. It calls for an initial deposit of $2 and a deposit of 5 cents less for each succeeding week."

Novel Sewing Machine.

A portable electric sewing machine is entirely inclosed in an oak cover or case, and when not in use it can be placed out of the way under a couch or on a closet shelf. The machine is operated from any lamp socket by either direct or alternating current.

Toughest Wood.

The toughest American wood, according to forestry service tests, is that of the osage orange.

SATISFIED WITH SIMPLE LIFE

People of the Latin Countries Take Things Less Seriously Than We Do in the North.

They take things less seriously down in the Andes country. The Latin races live their lives easily. There is a lack of realization of the seriousness and meaning of life, an habitual inclination to take things lightly. With no struggle to better their lot in life or fight against untoward circumstances, they calmly resign themselves to the fate of the unseen hand. In family life there is much affectionate generosity and contentment; life for them is simpler and less intense than in Anglo-Saxon countries.

There the women care little for the ballot. Are they backward? Does civilization lag? Perhaps; but those who travel there declare that the morning star of duty as wife and mother, even in their limited conception of its meaning, shines all the brighter in comparison. In their own wide ramified family circles their influence is felt, while their outside interest centers in the church.

The wealthy senora is looked up to by her poorer sisters and in the small towns and haciendas where her numerous family connections are the leading people of the community, she extends a kindly and charitable beneficence to them and to all who serve them in any capacity. When these women come of old Spanish stock they are extremely exclusive and ancient rules of etiquette guide their social relationships. Their daughters go to the convent schools, receive a limited education and return home to continue the same regime as has held sway since the day when their forbears left Spain.

Plenty of Privacy Then.

"Is there such a place in this world as an ideal summer resort?"

"Oh, yes," replied the cynical person who hates the society of his fellow man.

"Name it."

"Almost any summer resort in midwinter."

Rocks Decay From Heat.

The rocks in the desert are said to waste away even more rapidly than those exposed to continuous water erosion, an example being Southwestern deserts, where the change of temperature from 125 degrees at noon to 70 or so at night causes stone to crumble rapidly under the extremes of expansion and contraction. — Indianapolis News.

CAST INTO OUTER DARKNESS

Book Agent Might Have Escaped Ignominy Had He Been Able to Get in a Word Before.

The snappy, self-confident man who forced his way past a doortender into the private office of a leading manufacturer, was somewhat taken aback when the personage of importance greeted him affably.

"Glad to see you," said the employer. "How are you today?"

"I am glad to see you, sir."

"Fine day."

"Yes, I understand you employ several hundred men here, and I just dropped in—"

"Exactly, and I am proud of our workmen. They are the—"

"And I just dropped in to—"

"I suppose you wish to see the plant."

"Yes, but I—"

"Come with me."

"You see, I wish to see the men themselves—"

"You wish to see them at work? Well, it is interesting. You know—"

"But, sir—"

"No trouble at all. Just come right on with me."

The employer chatting the while at a rate that brooked no interruption, proudly shoved the visitor through every part of the large plant.

In vain the visitor repeatedly tried to crowd in a remark or two.

After a full half hour had passed, the employer, breathless, but pleased, escorted the visitor into the office again, and waved him into a seat.

The visitor seated himself, then desperately arose again.

"What I came here for," he blurted, "was to ask permission to see your workmen."

"Yes, yes, yes—"

"You see, sir, I am a book agent, and I—"

But his voice was drowned completely by the employer, who opened the door with one hand, pointed significantly with the other, and yelled at the top of his voice:

"Outside."

Gained Religion Rapidly.

A little five-year-old East Winthrop, Me., lad went to Sunday school with his sister, some older, and was much impressed with what he heard and saw. He talked considerably about his visit and his remarks were very interesting, he deciding that someone lived in heaven who could do any and all things.

It was soon after that the lad's mother had occasion to call him to her, and he, boylike, replied in the "just-a-minute" manner, remarking that it was going to rain and he wanted to catch some of the rainwater. The lady soon repeated the summons and tiptoed along to see what he was doing, to find him just completing the setting of his dishes and to hear him say in childlike innocence: "All right, Dedus; let 'er rain!"—Kennebec Journal.

Pneumonia as a Health Test.

Science now believes that a man who has just passed through an attack of pneumonia is the best imaginable life insurance risk, for the fact that he survived the disease is absolute proof of his powers of resistance and endurance.

"MR. TURKEY" GOT REPRIEVE

American Woman's Respect for Age Led Her to Forego the Prospective Thanksgiving Feast.

Miss H——, the matron of a girls' mission school on the island of Kusaie, one of the Carolines, relates this story:

She had often told her island charges about the customs of her own native land, and was highly pleased upon receiving an invitation to a Thanksgiving dinner, to be held on a neighboring island and given by one of her graduates, who had proudly specified that roast turkey would be on the bill of fare.

Miss H—— was delighted, and told her pupils so. Whereupon one of them arose and said:

"It gives me great pleasure to think of your coming joy, Miss H——, though it gives me pain, also, to think of losing Mr. Turkey from our midst. I have been accustomed to seeing that turkey on our island for many years, he being the only resident turkey we have there. But if in his ripe old age he is to be eaten, I'm sure, Miss H——, Mr. Turkey would rather be eaten by you than by any other person."

Convinced that his death would be an undesirable sacrifice, Miss H—— sent her hostess word that she preferred seeing Mr. Turkey to eating him.

Correct Heat Records.

Why does a weather bureau thermometer show lower temperatures in hot weather than the thermometer at the corner drug store? asks the Popular Science Monthly. When discrepancies exist, they are due chiefly to the fact that the official thermometer is installed in a wooden cage, where it is open to the air, but screened from both direct sunshine and the heat reflected from surrounding buildings.

Only under such conditions does a thermometer measure accurately the temperature of the air.

A thermometer in the sunshine becomes much hotter than the air around it, and its reading simply tells us how hot the instrument is, not how hot the air is. In large cities the weather bureau thermometer is often installed on the roof of a high building, where the temperatures differ somewhat from those prevailing at the street level. The object sought in this arrangement is to obtain a record of the humidity in general, rather than the artificial temperatures of the city.

Salt and Milk for Ink.

Inkstains on garments can be soaked out in a mixture of salt and milk. A teaspoonful of salt to nearly a gill of milk is the right proportion. This answers for either white or colored fabrics, but if the ink has been allowed to dry, it will be necessary to soak the stained part in the milk for an hour or two.

Good Plan.

A little girl told her mother she had decided to get married. Her mother laughed and asked her why. "I'm going to get married," said Mary, "and have five children—three white and two colored—to do the work."

A mother who suffers kidney trouble, finds it hard to keep up her daily work. Lameness, backache, sharp pains when stooping and "blue", nervous or dizzy spells, make home life dreary. Active kidneys bring back vigor, health and a pleasure in family duties. If the kidneys are weak try a box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. E. F. Caster, 1201 College St., Springfield, Ill., says: "I had backaches, headaches and a tired, nervous feeling. Pains darted through my body. My sight blurred and my kidneys didn't do their work right. Doan's Kidney Pills drove away all the pains and aches, made my kidneys normal and fixed me up in good shape."

CURIOSITY "KILLED A CAT"

But in This Instance It Brought Nickels to a Very Lively Salesman.

Out of a shop entrance he dashed with a small length of cane, with which he manfully attacked a rainpipe.

He struck it repeatedly, then thrust it upward as far as it would go. Next moment the passer-by heard the familiar squeaking of an imprisoned rat. Women fearfully ran away with uplifted skirts; men and boys gathered round. The man prodded and prodded, and the squeaks became shriller.

Carts drew up by the curb and advice came from all quarters.

"Get a long stick, mate!"

"Bring a dog, someone!"

"Let him come out and we'll get him!"

But the hunter took no notice. He meant to catch that rat in his own way. At length, when a crowd of about 100 had gathered, he turned round and produced a tiny whistle from his mouth.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he cried, "the funniest toy of the age! Amuses boys and girls for hours. Imitate every bird ever known, as well as mice and rats. Roars of laughter when used at a mixed party. One nickel each, gentlemen!"—New York Globe.

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 17

THE HOLY CITY.

LESSON TEXT—Rev. 21:1-7, 22-27.

GOLDEN TEXT—Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his people.—Rev. 21:3.

As we approach the end of the year, our minds turn from the imperial city, where last we have any authentic record of Paul, to the eternal city in which he has so long resided. In lesson ten we studied Jesus Christ in his resurrection glory, the source of all power, King of Kings and Lord of Lords for the redemption of the human race. In Lesson 11 we studied the glorified Christ who is actually working through his churches as the representatives of his kingdom upon earth. The succeeding chapters describe in symbols and pictures the discipline and training of God's people during the long generations that followed. In the lesson for today, we have a vision of the final triumph of Christianity when it shall have accomplished its work of redemption in this world.

I. The New Heaven and the New Earth (vv. 1-7). John in vision saw the consummation of the work of Christianity, the visible answer to the prayer which Jesus Christ taught his disciples to pray, "thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as in heaven." Heaven, as well as earth, has been invaded and polluted by sin, but both alike are to be made new. (I Peter 3:10, 11, 13). The true Jerusalem, of which Solomon's was but a type, is of heavenly and divine origin. It comes down out of heaven from God. We know nothing of the inhabitants of the universe of which we are a part, but here we have some scriptural indication of that place where God's children are to be with him eternally. The kingdom of God is among you, but it is eventually to be with God and Jesus in a peculiar and beautiful way. John's announcement came from out of heaven and out of the throne. (1) It was a tabernacle of God with men; rather he shall tabernacle with men. He is to pitch his tent among us (John 1:14 R. V. marg.) It is to be done eventually and permanently. This dwelling of God among us lies at the foundation of the blessedness and glories which are to follow. (2) They shall be his people. Israel had been his people; all nations are to be his people in the fullest sense. (3) God himself shall be with them, not only his tabernacle but he, himself visibly, personally. (4) He shall be their God, acknowledged in all his infinite claims, and he to them all that God is of love, power, wisdom, holiness and glory. (5) He shall wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will not be a single grief or heartache, unsatisfied longing or tear, for God shall wipe them away, and they will stay wiped away. (6) Death shall be no more. Of all the enemies, death is the last one which shall be taken from the earth. It is sweet to know that this last enemy is to be conquered. (7) There shall be no mourning, crying or pain any more. Every sorrow, agony, remorse, gloom, disappointment gone forever; death, tears, mourning all passed away. It is hard for us to comprehend the majesty and sweep of this great and glorious promise. (See I Cor. 15). But this kingdom of heaven is to be on the earth. The ideal and goal of the material world will produce this "new heaven." There was no more sea separating, turbulent, hostile, a means of separation and destruction, of wrecks and hurricanes that sometimes shut out the stars, therefore, as a symbol and a type it has no place in the renewed earth.

II. The Coming Light and Glory (vv. 22-27). The intervening verses are a wonderful description of the foundation walls and gates of the city. There will be no temple in that city for it will not be needed. Instead of the temple which stands for the temple of earth there is to be the presence of God, himself, but the lamb is also in the midst of it. Nothing can more forcefully impress upon us the deity and preeminence of Jesus Christ, the atoning lamb, slain before the foundation of the world. This city is to be a city of light and glory. It will not be an illumination by gas nor electricity, for the glory of the Lord shall lighten it. The thing our great cities need today to expose their sin is light, but there will be no sins to be exposed when the light of God's eternity shines upon his blessed holy city. All nations shall walk in the midst of that light. Kings shall bring their glory into it. Everything that is regal and bright and wondrous will be in that city. The city stands wide open at all times; no need of walls or excluding gates. There shall be no night there. In God, the father of light, there is no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning (James 1:18).

Summary. What are the lessons for our day from this vision of the new heaven and the new earth? First: That the golden age of the Bible has not yet taken place. There are better times to come than anything the world has yet seen. Second: We have here the positive assurance of the success of our leader and the victory of Christianity in its conflict with evil. Third: The golden ideal of heaven is the means by which we can test our daily lives and the whole course of our conduct. The question we should constantly ask is, "Are we going to this heavenly ideal?" Fourth: The gates of that city are open; an angel is at each gate, and shall keep out all evil.

God desires that all men everywhere should repent, and is not willing that any should perish.

When the final assize shall have passed, no one will say that God did not give him a chance nor seek to inspire him to a place of eternal joy at his right hand.

Again there is to be federation of the forces of good. Today we too often find Christian people divided.

Ultimately, when we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is, our Christian forces will be united in our common song of joy and praise.

Invitation. "And the Spirit and the bride say come, let him that heareth say come, and let him that is athirst come, and whosoever will let him take of the water of life freely."

The less tenderness a man has in his nature, the more he requires from others.—Ramel.

TO PREVENT OLD AGE COMING TOO SOON!

"Toxic poisons in the blood are thrown out by the kidneys. The kidneys act as filters for such poisons. If we wish to prevent old age coming too soon and increase our chances for a long life, we should drink plenty of pure water and take a little Anuric," says the famous Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.

When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain a little Anuric from your nearest druggist and you will quickly notice the grand results. You will find it thirty-seven times more potent than lithia, and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.

I took her advice and took the 'Prescription' for a time. First it helped me and then it cured me."—MRS. JAS. BERGER, 226 Jackson St.

"Great Scott!" exclaimed his friend. "Surely she must be crazy if she objects to her fiance's stealing a kiss from her."

The abandoned one sighed deeply.

"But that's just the trouble," he said. "I didn't steal it from her."—Lansdale (Pa.) Reporter.

Canadian Farmers Profit From Wheat

The war's devastation of European crops has caused an unusual demand for grain from the American Continent. The people of the world must be fed and wheat near $2 a bushel offers great profits to the farmer. Canada's invitation is therefore especially attractive. She wants settlers to make money and happy, prosperous homes for themselves by helping her raise immense wheat crops.

You can get a Homestead of 160 acres FREE and other lands at remarkably low prices. During many years Canadian wheat fields have averaged 20 bushels to the acre many yields as high as 45 bushels to the acre. Wonderful crops also of Oats, Barley and Flax.

Mixed farming as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses full of nutrition are the only food required for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, churches, markets convenient, climate excellent.

Military service is not compulsory in Canada, but there is an extra demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for the war. The Government is urging farmers to put extra acreage into grain. Write for literature and particulars as to reduced railway rates to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or

Where Does the West Begin?

Out where the handclasp's a little stronger,
Out where the smile dwells a little longer—
That's where the West begins.
Out where the sun's a little brighter,
Where the snow that falls is a trifle whiter,
Where the bonds of home are a wee but tighter—
That's where the West begins.
Out where the skies are a trifle bluer,
Out where friendships a trifle truer,
Out where everything is newer—
That's where the West begins.
Out where a fresher breeze is blowing
Where there's laughter in every streamlet flowing,
Where there's more reaping and less of sowing—
That's where the West begins.
Out where the West is in the making,
Where fewer hearts with despair are aching,
Where there's more of giving and less of taking—
That's where the West begins.
Where there's more of singing and less of sighing,
Where there's more of giving and less of buying,
And a man makes friends without half trying—
That's where the West begins.

My, but it is easy to tell other people not to worry.

No matter what the state of the weather, we will have Christmas in just ten days more.

Isn't it strange that when people come to high words, they generally use low language?

"Many a man who pretends to be lukin' fer work," says Casey, "awlways lukes the wrong way."

When Casey told a man that he was raised in Ireland he met the query: "What part?" And Casey promptly answered: "Awl iv me, shure."

Some men don't appreciate what a saving a slow automobile is to them in the matter of saving them paying fines for speeding.

Most men differ from Diogenes and think they do not need a lantern in searching for an honest man. They think all they need do is to look in a looking glass.

If gasoline stays at the present price, don't you think you are doing a friend a favor by giving him an auto at Christmas.

Maude, the typewriter, was so careless about her hair and dress that it was no wonder her employer complained of her bad grammar and spelling. See?

I note that one of our superior court judges says "Mismanagement of home finances is the chief cause of divorce." I beg leave to suggest that it may be also "Mrs.management," etc.

Bill Bryan and his bottle of grape juice promises to be the popular shibboleth in 1920 politics, and you might as well cultivate an appetite for the gentle fizz, for it is coming sure.

"The farmers at the land show boasted that they had the best of it, as they had their forest preserves, which led Casey to say: "Shure, here in the city we does hav our State street jam."

It is a fond message to the young man who came from a small town to receive the welcome words: "You may come home now, your tailor is dead."

I was talking to a missionary lately returned from China, and his stories were very interesting of the people and their habits. I asked him if he could speak their language and he aptly remarked: "Yes, I speak some broken Chinu.' I have a girl at my house that does the same.

It is amusing—sometimes—to watch the look of disappointment on the face of a man who, having ordered his paper stopped, finds that it is published just the same, even though his name is off the lists.

Moriarity had remarked: "It's too bad thot none iv us kin bay as good as sum papel think we should be," and Casey put in with: "Yis, an' uts moighty fine thot we can't be as bad as sum paple think we be."

When I asked Casey how Moriarity got so bald, he answered: "Oh, shure he lost half his hair worryin' about a gurl." "But the other half?" I asked. "Oh, will, he lost thot afther the gurl marrid him."

Casey was sarcastic in speaking of his friend Moriarity's bravery, and said: "Oh, yis, shure he do be a brave mon; he wint over to the county morgue and offered to lick any mon in the place."

"You hold me so close that I cannot dance comfortably," said the girl to her partner at the last "Frat" hop, and the big brave boy with bushy football hair eagerly said: "Well, then, let's just go out on the stairs and sit out this dance."

Speaking of the invasion of woman in man's fields of labor, someone asked Casey: "Do you think a woman should get a man's wages?" He was answered: 'Shure, thin, no matther whot Oi do be thinkin', Oi know thot wan woman, me wife, do be getting wan mon's wages, an' thot is mine.'

The baby had been weakly and the new doctor told Mrs Casey: "You'll have to let your baby have one cow's milk to drink every day," and she sorrowfully answered: "Very well, docthor mything ye think best, boot fer the loife iv me Oi don't say haw thot poor little crathur kin dhrink awl the milk wan caw gives every day.'

A young woman from the country was suing her ex-sweetheart for breach of promise, and the lawyers were, as usual making all sorts of inquisitive interrogatories. "You say," remarked one, 'that the defendant frequently sat very close to you?" 'Yes, sir," was the reply. 'How close?" "Close enough so's one cheer was all the settin' room we needed." "And you say he put his arm around you?" 'No I didn't." What did you say, then?' I said he put both arms around me." "Then what?" "He hugged me." "Very hard?" "Yes, he did So durn hard that I came purty near hollerin' right out." "Why didn't you holler?" "'Cause I was afeered he'd stop." The court fell off the bench and had to be carried out and put under the hydrant for the purpose of resuscitation

The first grade teacher had been able to spank Tommy with the greatest enthusiasm but his next teacher had not reached the point where she felt she could do justice to him, in spite of all his naughtiness. 'Send him to me when you want him spanked" said the first grade teacher one morning, after her colleague had related his many misdemeanors About eleven o'clock Tommy appeared at the first grade teacher's door. She dropped her work, seized him by the arm, dragged him to the dressing-room turned him over her knee and did her duty. When she had finished, she said: "Well, Tommy, what have you to say? Please miss, my teacher wants the scissors.'

Englewood Women's Club Monday Meeting.

Literature Department Enjoys Olin Mason Caward—Sociology Department Held Morning Meeting—Next Week Music Study Class in Morning —Business Meeting in Afternoon.

The sociology department, Mrs. Kindred in the chair, gave the morning program Monday. In spite of the bad weather and the approach of the holidays there was a good attendance. After a reading of the minutes by Mrs. Swisher, Mrs. Edinger reported on infant welfare work and asked for more helpers to assist in the sewing classes which the committee has formed to teach women at Davis square every Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Orrill Clark reported for the woman's shelter, that a tract of land at Cicero Ave. and West 62d St. was under consideration for the home, where the young offenders especially might be given instruction during their commitment, and assistance toward a moral life. Mrs. Kalk spoke of the Chicago and Cook County School for Boys, a successor to the old John Worthy school. The new institution, which is not yet completed, is located at 22d St., between Harlem and Desplaines Ave. The school is in use, however, doing very satisfactory work with a difficult proposition. Games for boys were solicited to be sent to the school. Mrs. Britton, on account of illness, was prevented from being present. Mrs. Fulmer, also of the Cook County Social Service, its public welfare branch, kindly filled the vacancy, telling of the activities in particular of her branch. Outside of Chicago, in Cook county there are so many suffering from tuberculosis and contagion that the limited force of visiting nurses (two) has almost no opportunity to visit and assist many; but wherever possible the patient is urged to go to Oak Forest to receive the benefit of the city's treatment of the white plague and to remove the source of infection. Mrs. Fuller gave a discriminating account of current events.

In the afternoon the club was convened by Mrs. Roberts. Grace Hall Riegeldoerffer, soprano, was introduced and sang a group of songs, with encore, Mrs. Charles Orchard accompanied her. Mr. Olin Mason Caward, pastor of Normal Park Presbyterian church, speaker of the afternoon, was charmingly introduced by Mrs. Theresa V. Leigh, chairman of the art and literature department (which presented the program). Mr. Caward's lecture was a summary of the year's course in the study of comparative religions and defined Christianity's relation to the religions of the world. Wherever Christianity has gone it has benefited the people who accepted it. It has fulfilled spiritual longings that no other religion has. It has taught living that no system of philosophy nor ethics has succeeded in teaching. It is, indeed 'the light of the world," shining perpetually, shedding hope and inspiration on all upon whom it falls. America in its liberality and high-mindedness is like unto Christianity. Christianity and America have a mission which is analogous, that of bearing hope and high purpose to other peoples of the world. Mr. Caward is a very eloquent and forceful speaker of great intensity and conviction. His lecture was very much enjoyed. A social hour followed.

An anniversary dinner, to celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of the club, will be held February 9 at the South Shore Country club. Reservations ($2 per plate) are now being made. Tables will seat eight.

Mrs. Harry Chamberlain spoke a few moments on the advantage of acquaintance with parliamentary law. A class to study this essential will probably be formed. Mrs Mears will accept the names of those interested.

Mrs. A. C. Allen asked for gifts to be used for the Christmas tree of the Sarah Hackett Stevenson home.

Next Monday morning the music study class meets. Mrs. Dugger will prepare the paper, which pupils of Miss Jessie Kent (children of club members) will illustrate with piano, violin or vocal solos. In the afternoon occurs the monthly business meeting.

Changes in the printed calendar program have been completed and are as follows. January 8, an afternoon of French opera, by Edward Clark, assisted by a soprano and a violinist (his wife); January 29, Rev. Robert Woods van Kirk, in a Browning recital; February 26, the Misses Fuller of Sturminster Newton, Dorset, England. "A Garland of Country Song," and March 5, a play by club members, in charge of Mrs. Bannister.

No Trouble.

"That's a funny house Smith is building. He's got the billiard room and his den in the cellar." "That's his wife's idea. She got tired of hearing him grumble every time he had to go down in the cellar to attend to the furnace."

The Englewood Sunday Evening Club.

We were delighted with the message brought us by Dr. Homer B. Hulbert last Sabbath evening. This was his first appearance before our body, but we shall be very glad to have him come again and tell us more concerning the Orient.

We are glad to announce that our guest and speaker next Sabbath evening will be Mr. Ernest K. Coulter, author of "The Children in the Shadow," founder of the Big Brother movement, lawyer and lecturer, a man who has had unprecedented experience in the greatest social clinic in the world, the children's court of New York city, which he helped to organize and through which he saw 100,000 children pass, a man able to speak with authority on children and civic problems such as is possessed, perhaps, by no other speaker in America. An observer trained by early years of journalism, a sociologist whose service has been in action rather than in mere speculation, Mr. Coulter has a knowledge of his subject, a power of forceful presentation, a human appeal, a humor and a happy personality which keep him in wide and growing demand. This is a day of awakening social conscience and Mr. Coulter is in the forefront of the movement for humanitarian betterment.

The word pictures he draws in the course of his lectures, of the humorous and pathetic scenes he has witnessed in the course of his work, are intensely interesting. He tells one story of a stuttering little negro boy who took great pride in the fact that his name was Walter Scott, and whose grin revealed two rows of very white teeth in sharp contrast to a very black face.

"What is it tickles you so?" asked Mr. Coulter.

"Well, suh, I jes' couldn't help it. W'en dey brought me in dis yere place dey gave me a bath—he! he! an' I jest blush—blush—blushed all over mah face."

Mr. Coulter will speak to us next Sabbath evening on the subject, "The Saving of Mike." Miss Hazel Silver, soprano, will sing, and Mr. George R. Kurtz organist will play. Doors open promptly at 6:45. We meet in the auditorium of the Englewood Presbyterian church, Yale Ave and West 64th St.

The Englewood Community club spent the afternoon of December 12 at the home of Mrs A. W. Axtell, 431 61st Pl. Lillian French Read charmed those in attendance by a program of old-time songs, which she gave in the costume of the days when her songs were popular music The club members greatly appreciated Mrs. Read's generosity in giving them such a rare treat. After the hour of visiting which followed, the club adjourned until January 9, when Miss Vittum of the Woman's City club and University settlement will address it.

Englewood W. C. T. U.

The social meeting of the Englewood W. C. T. U. will be held Thursday, December 21, at Mrs. Bowersocks, 322 West 60th St., 2 p. m. Topic: "What Is the Outlook for Equal Suffrage?" Leader, Mrs. O'Neal.

The business meeting, December 4, was very interesting. Mrs. Jeness spoke to us of the "Crusade" and carried us back to the time before the W. C. T. U was organized. Several gave their personal experience. A memorial service was held for our dear sister, F. G. Carrel, whose life was so full of kind deeds for others.

W. C. O. F. Election.

St Bernard's court, No 144, W. C. O. F., on last Tuesday evening elected the following officers for 1917:

Chief ranger, Mrs. M. H. Hoey; vice chief ranger, Miss Carolyn O'Brien; recording secretary, Mrs. John Cleary; financial secretary, Mrs. J. J. Delaney; treasurer, Miss Mary Cagney; delegate to convention held in Milwaukee in September, Mrs. M. H. Hoey; alternate, Mrs. A. A. Lawder.

St. Bernard's court holds its meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month in G. A. R. hall, Princeton Ave., near 63rd St. It has a membership of 117 and will hold its installation of officers on the first Tuesday in January, 1917.

Commercial Association Enthusiasm.

If Englewood folks could have looked into the group of men that gathered at the Englewood club last Monday night and could have heard their discussions of the problems that confront this section of the city they would have been convinced that the movement of the Commercial association, to co-ordinate the varied interests of the community, is the biggest thing ever undertaken for their benefit.

Every business section of Englewood was represented, there and their conversation and debate was centered on what they could do to make Englewood a more desirable place in which to live and do business. For the first time have the representative interests of Englewood gathered together in a businesslike way to constructively discuss their needs.

For years Englewood, one of the oldest centers in the city of Chicago, one of the most ideally located, has stood by and watched other sections receive attention which they should have enjoyed. Englewood has seen opportunity, one after the other, pass by because its citizens have no organized means of attracting them. Alone men and women have tried to achieve their ideals, but the struggle has more often ended in discouragement.

These men who had the real Englewood spirit at heart have made an analysis of the condition and have concluded that only thorough education of the needs and the willing co-operation of the people can change the conditions. With their keen business insight they have set their hopes in the rejuvinated Commercial association. It is to become the community service station. The successes of the similar organizations on every side of Englewood have spurred them on and they have determined to stage the biggest community come-back that was ever recorded in history.

Failures will be turned into tangible assets and Englewood is once more to become a leading force. The value of doing business in your own trade territory will be projected. The services of every civic and fraternal institution, every church and school will be turned in toward making Englewood advance.

The work of this committee is not stirred by false enthusiasm but cool planning. The campaign will last over a period of a number of weeks and with a community efficiency expert in charge it is going to be big business.

When the initiating campaign is over the work will be perpetuated by an efficiently organized association with new blood and a new purpose It will maintain an office and a secretary-manager will be in active charge. It will be his duty to transact the business of the association with the assistance of the members. It will be his sole duty to care for the welfare of Englewood.

This movement cannot but command the respect and co-operation of the best-thinking people in Englewood. It is for the establishment of a unity of purpose and the making of Englewood a distinctive community.

Sing With Us and Enjoy Yourselves.

On Monday evening, December 18, in the assembly hall at Hamilton Park field house, when the combined choruses of the Hamilton Park Civic Music club will give a Christmas concert. The children's chorus will sing old-time carols around a tree, and the adult chorus will present three numbers, by Bach, Mendelssohn and Gevaert. Mrs. W. B. Curtis will be the soloist of the evening The audience will be invited to participate in the singing of familiar Christmas hymns, and thus inaugurate the community singing movement which the club plans to make of frequent occurrence during the season.

Mrs. Grace Norbeck will direct the children's chorus, and Mr. Edward Collins, the leader of the adult chorus, will conduct that body and lead the community singing.

Mark the date and place in your engagement calendar and keep the engagement.

The adult chorus is just beginning rehearsals on the music of Taylor-Coleridge's "Hiawatha," which it will render as its offering in the regular spring series of Civic music concerts at the park. This is an excellent time for new members to enter the club. Tenors are particularly needed. All other parts are welcome.

Directors' Club Concert.

The Directors' club has arranged with the Englewood Pathephone people for a concert to be given at their clubrooms next door to Lehnhard's cigar store, Friday evening at 8 p. m. The program will include everything from ragtime to grand opera. Judging from the success of the Pathephone concert held by the Royal League at Odd Fellows' temple last Tuesday evening, the members are looking forward to an enjoyable time. You are invited.

CIVIC PRIDE FOR ENGLEWOOD

What Is Proposed by the Commercial Association's New Movement

In every person's heart there lies a germ of civic pride which awaits development. But no matter how hard we strive as individuals, nor how sincere we are in the belief that our cause is right, we can never hope to attain real success until we get together in a spirit of harmony and co-operate.

In every community there are hundreds of persons who believe heartily in the forward movement of every project that will benefit their surroundings. They can talk by the hour, unfolding plans and theories, but when a definite problem is presented and they are asked to share in its solution they too readily shift the burden.

Englewood like every other place is composed of the lifters and the leaners and the lifters have taken it upon themselves to stand the leaners upon their own feet and set them right with their environment. The Commercial association has, after long and careful deliberation, gone into an expansion campaign that means a better and busier Englewood. They are going to do something for the benefit of others. Their aim is not for the gain of Sixty-third street but for the entire district, not for the merchant but for every individual, for the homes, the churches, schools, lodges and societies.

In business no one cares what our assets are but how we make use of them. The bystanders in industry want to know how we are going to improve so that they may judge of our survival value and either consider us a force to be looked up to or pigeonhole us for all time.

The Commercial association under the new order will render real service. Its departments will be developed to meet the demands of the merchant, the manufacturer and the domestic interests. The scattered business centers must be developed and the community educated to the necessity of patriotism to their merchants and their trade centers. Money cannot make the efforts of the association a success, but only the intelligent willingness on the part of the people of Englewood to give their unstinted support to a well-directed force.

The Commercial association is about to become the community workshop where everyone can do a little work. It is to awaken an interest in the indifferent citizens who have taken it for granted that Englewood would take care of itself, without an effort on the part of everybody.

A united Englewood is the goal which the business men have determined to reach. This movement will co-ordinate their interests and make a more agreeable citizenship, more business, and better living. The organizers of this movement represent every section of the South side district. They are of one mind and purpose. Their work is the fulfillment of a need and must occupy a place of distinction and respect. The institution is for every one interested in Englewood and as individuals they are responsible for its success.
